LEARN MORE ABOUT IT

What makes Ava Puhi Extract an ethnobotanical?

Ethnobotanicals are plants or herbs that are tied to a region and its people. Ava Puhi Extract falls into this group because of its traditional use in the South Pacific, where the bulb-like flower was used to cleanse and condition hair.

What does Ava Puhi Moni mean?

Ava puhi is the Polynesian name for Zingiber zerumbet, the shampoo ginger plant. Moni is the Polynesian word for “true.” We call our product Ava Puhi Moni because it uses the “true” ava puhi—the same bulb-like flower that is traditionally used to wash hair.

What ingredient in Epoch Ava Puhi Moni Conditioner makes my hair so soft and shiny?

The natural polysaccharides found in the ava puhi bulb-like flower condition the hair shaft, making it smooth and shiny. Its natural moisturizing properties also hydrate hair, making it feel softer.

Where does Nu Skin obtain the Ava Puhi Extract?

Nu Skin has established a relationship with an independent agricultural source in the islands of Polynesia to grow and cultivate the ava puhi plant for use in all Ava Puhi Moni products.

How is Epoch Ava Puhi Moni Conditioner unique?

We formulated our Ava Puhi Moni products with the “true ava puhi” extract, not an imitation. So you get to enjoy the traditional benefits of this incredible plant, just enhanced by modern science.
